I once knew gambler down in Birmingham.

Folks used to call him One-Eyed Sam.

He was a dice shooter and he couldn't lose.

G D7 G
He would yell, "My baby needs a new pair o' shoes."

CHORUS:

G E7 A7 D7 G D7
He'd roll a 7 and then 11, And Sam'd let the money ride.

G E7 A7 D7
Another 7, another 11, he had a roll like an ocean tide.

G G7
Sam'd fall right down upon his knees,

Beg them snake eyes to stay away please,

G E7 A7 D7 G
Throw a 7 and then 11, and he'd rake the money to his side.
